DO respect™

These questions are designed to help you apply the concepts of the film to your own situation.

In your opinion, what was the most important or engaging statement from Do Respect? Why?

How do you put respecting others into practice? What about self respect?

Do you believe that there is a connection between respect and diversity? If so, what is it?

There are many ways to show respect towards others. Name a few.

How can you influence greater respect in others?

When is the last time you remember feeling disrespected? How did it make you feel? Did you address the situation? Please elaborate.

Can you remember a time when you disrespected someone else, intentionally or unintentionally? How did it make you feel? Did you address the situation/was it addressed? Please elaborate.

We've all experienced anger or frustration at work. How can you make sure to communicate respectfully even when you are angry or frustrated?

In your opinion, do you believe respect is something that is due to everyone – or do you have to earn respect? Please discuss.
